Other Information for Senior Members

FYC is a private club operated by volunteers from its membership. As such, it is a “working” club and all Senior Members are expected to share in the work of Club operations in Fredericton and Douglas Harbour, such as yard clean-up, repairs to facilities, installing and removing docks and moorings, serving on the board, etc.

I agree to read and follow the documents below, found on the Club’s website (printing them is recommended):

New Members Guide – this cites what new members need to have for their boat and its storage, and it provides basic information on the Club’s Fredericton and Douglas Harbour facilities and members’ use of them.

Yard Rules – This provides information about the Club in detail, your responsibilities as a member, and tables of dues and the various fees.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT & AGREEMENT – APPLICANTS for ALL MEMBER TYPES

I hereby acknowledge and agree to the conditions and requirements cited in this application and attached Winter Storage Agreement, and I will abide by the rules and bylaws laid down by the Fredericton Yacht Club.
